Greenland, Newfoundland and Labrador

Untouched Wilderness and National Parks

15 Days in Length
Departure Date: September 12, 2019

Explore the stunning landscapes of Greenland and Newfoundland, as well as experiencing quaint fishing villages, UNESCO sites, and unique national parks.

Day 1: Start off your journey with a flight from Copenhagen to Kangerlussuaq, Greenland, and take in the fjord and ice cap as you land and transfer to your ship, the M/S Fram.

Day 2: Sailing along the western coast of Greenland, take advantage of the opportunities to explore. Nature dominates this far north-weather and the elements will dictate the specifics of your exploration today.

Day 3-4: Cruise the fjord from Nuuk into Kapisillit taking in breathtaking views, then spend the day in the capital city.

Day 5-7: Continuing down the coast of Greenland, stop in the abandoned mining town of Ivittuut to spot musk oxen, the giants of arctic wildlife. Further south, swim in the hot springs of Uunartoq and step foot on the farmstead of Erik the Red's relatives at Hvalsey Church. On day seven take in the sights of colorful houses and icebergs in Qassiarsuk.

Day 8-9: Crossing the waters where the Labrador Sea and North Atlantic meet, find the breeze and views refreshing. Try to spot seabirds and icebergs while out on the deck.

Day 10-11: Arrive in Canada and be greeted by a Viking settlement amid vast wilderness. You may even see some marine wildlife-this area is a feeding ground for porpoises, whales, seals and dolphins. In Red Bay, step into the history of the important Labrador whaling industry.

Day 12-13: Spend the next days in Gros Morne National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage site.

Day 14: Step into France in St. Pierre and Miquelon. Taste bakery delicacies at Guillard Gourmandise, or head to the tiny island of Grand Colombier to spot Leach's storm petrels.

Day 15: Arrive in St. John's and explore the charm and character of this old city.

Package price includes CRUISE + COPENHAGEN-KANGERLUSSUAQ FLIGHTS. If you need assistance with booking your transatlantic air, let us know and we will be happy to help you.
